

WOMEN FOR ONCOLOGY

An ESMO Initiative

Sharing the power - ESMO Women for Oncology Forum

Friday, 19 October

13.30 – 15.30

Room: 24 – Hall B4

To bring about gender balance it is important to show how sharing power between men and women will create diverse and inclusive cultures that value differences and collaboration. Women cannot do it alone, and we need men with the courage to lead in inclusive and conscious ways.

Welcome

Solange Peters

– PART 1 –

Oceans apart or bridging the gap?

Manjit Dosanjh

Senior Advisor for Medical Applications, CERN

UN representative for Graduate Women International (GWI)

Feminization and recomposition of professional hierarchies: challenges and opportunities for medicine

Francesco Panese

Professor of Sociology, UNIL

– PART 2 –

National groups share their experiences at local level and concrete ideas on the subject.

DGHO Women's working group

Anne Letsch

Women for Oncology Italy

Marina Chiara Garassino

Women for Oncology Greece

Helena Linardou

– REFRESHMENTS –

15' to allow for change of room set up

– PART 3 –

Small-group-discussions

Participants would be divided in small groups to discuss about specific relevant themes to be identified. Speakers would lead discussions in the groups.

Conclusions

Solange Peters