Abstract submission deadline:
Tuesday, 26 July 2022

Submission methods and deadlines

All abstracts for the Molecular Analysis for Precision Oncology Congress 2022 (MAP 2022) must be submitted by the deadline of 21:00hrs Central European Summer Time (CEST) on Tuesday, 26 July 2022

Abstract submission is free of charge and must be completed online only via the MAP 2022 website
Abstracts submitted by e-mail, post or fax will NOT be accepted.

Submission regulations

1. By submitting an abstract intended for presentation at MAP 2022, the first author (= presenter) warrants that the material has neither been, nor will be, previously published in any publication in peer-review setting or presented at a meeting of any other scientific organisation prior to MAP 2022.

Abstracts containing updated data with respect to a previous presentation may, however, be submitted to MAP 2022. In this case, additional information must be given specifying clearly which new data will be presented, for example final analysis of primary endpoint(s) or intermediate statistical analysis. Authors must at the same time also supply information regarding the prior presentation for identification and comparison purposes, indicating the name of the meeting, year and/or publication number.

Violation of this policy will result in a rejection of the submitted abstract.

Should any similarities to prior presentations or publications exist, these must be explained in a covering letter, citing the MAP 2022 abstract submission ID, title and first author, to the MAP 2022 organisers c/o the ESMO Scientific Programmes Department by e-mail at programme@esmo.org. Except for unusual circumstances, abstracts containing previously published material will be rejected.

Encore abstracts are not accepted.

2. The first author does not need to be a member ESMO, CRUK or UNICANCER, jointly “the MAP 2022 organisers”.

3. With the submission of an abstract, and on behalf of him/herself, all co-authors, the first author (=presenter) undertakes to:

1. Release full copyright to the MAP 2022 organisers and give full permission for the abstract, if accepted, to be published in the MAP 2022 Abstract Book in printed and/or electronic format, as well as published online on the websites of the MAP 2022 organisers and the Annals of Oncology website.
2. Warrant that he/she is an investigator with a substantial involvement in the study presented in the abstract.
3. Accept responsibility for the accuracy and confidentiality (see corresponding paragraph) of the submitted abstract.
4. Confirm that all authors are aware of, and agree to, the content of the abstract and support the data therein; furthermore the first author will be responsible for obtaining, and, upon request, showing proof that all authors have given their permission for the submission of the abstract and content therein as well as for the potential inclusion of the abstract in the official MAP 2022 PR activities.
5. Make all reasonable efforts to ensure the anonymity of any patient discussed in the abstracts.
6. Be the contact person for all correspondence concerning the abstract and to keep co-authors duly informed about its status.

10. Employees of pharmaceutical, diagnostic or artificial intelligence companies may submit and present data generated in in-vitro and pre-clinical research, excluding: translational research, gene expression sets from databases of clinical data series and artificial intelligence-enabled analyses or products from clinical data series. The latter must be presented by an independent, practicing physician or independent investigator listed in the abstract author-string. When the presenting investigator is/represents an independent entity contracted by the sponsor, this should be disclosed in the abstract submission process.

Should no valid disclosure statement be provided at submission, authors may, at the discretion of the MAP 2022 Scientific Committee, be removed from the author string without further recourse to the authors.
17. 6. No-show policy

The abstract's first and presenting author who, without notice, is absent during the session when his/her abstract is presented will be barred from having abstracts accepted for the following MAP Congress.

- Proffered Paper – Oral presentations by authors presenting original data of superior quality, followed by expert discussion and perspectives.
- Mini Oral – Short oral presentations by authors presenting data of good quality, followed by expert discussion and perspectives.
- Poster – Display session for review, discussion and questions. The presenting authors must be available for Q&A to represent their work.

Embargo Policy

Data and information included in accepted abstracts is under embargo until the relevant embargo release date cited in the schedule above.

Data and information beyond what is included in the accepted abstracts, eg. full data sets, may only be made public at the start of the official programme session during which the study is presented.

Trial in Progress abstracts

Trial in Progress (“TiP”) abstracts in all phases of clinical research (phases I to III) may be submitted to MAP 2022.

It is expected that abstracts submitted as Trial in Progress are ongoing trials that have not reached any protocol-specified endpoints for analysis and consequently will only require the completion of two (2) sections:

- Background
- Trial design

Notes:

- Recruitment must have already begun or have been completed by the abstract submission deadline of Tuesday, 26 July 2022.
- Abstracts including results or preliminary data will be rejected.
- Trial in Progress abstracts will be accepted for Poster outcome only.
- Encore TiP abstracts will NOT be accepted

Abstracts will be reviewed by the MAP 2022 Scientific Committee and considered on the merits of the scientific and clinical rationale of the trial.

Confidentiality policy

Abstracts submitted to MAP 2022 are considered confidential by the organisers, the author, co-authors and research sponsors until publicly released in connection with MAP 2022. Prior to public release, the author, co-authors, research sponsors, journalists and others may not:

- Make the information public or provide it to others who can make it public (e.g. press)
- Publish or present the information or provide it to others who can make it public
- Use the information for trading purposes or provide it to others who can use it for trading purposes

The MAP 2022 organisers reserve the right to share material under embargo with journalists on the authorised MAP 2022 media list who have agreed to respect the MAP 2022 embargo policy.

If details or relevant information from the abstract or additional study data are disclosed in advance of public release in connection with MAP 2022, the abstract will no longer be eligible for inclusion in the MAP 2022 programme and/or will be subject to removal.

Confidentiality policy exceptions

According to the Confidentiality policy, data and other information in a research abstract is confidential until public release in connection with MAP 2022.

When a publicly traded company is required to disclose data or other information from a confidential abstract in advance of the public release to satisfy requirements of the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) or a corresponding body in another country, the abstract is still eligible for inclusion in the MAP 2022 programme provided that the company submits to the MAP 2022 organisers c/o the ESMO Scientific Programmes Department (programme@esmo.org) in advance of the release written notification of the requirement to issue information in accordance to SEC regulations.

In the interest of effective peer-reviewed presentation of data at MAP 2022, and particularly if the abstract has been tentatively included in the official MAP 2022 PR activities, the company is required to get in contact with the MAP 2022 Communications (media@esmo.org) in advance of the release to notify that a press release regarding an abstract included in the official MAP 2022 PR activities will have to be issued in accordance to SEC regulations.

The MAP 2022 organisers recommend that the company’s press release adheres to the Qualitative Sample Press Release and:

1. Summarises data cited in the abstract in a qualitative way rather than providing specific quantitative information, including exact figures on the study
2. Avoids interpretations about the implications of the data for clinical practice
3. Notes that full data has been submitted for presentation at MAP 2022.

MAP 2022 Communications c/o the ESMO Communications will review the company’s press release to ensure it adheres to the Qualitative Sample Press Release and evaluate if the abstract can still be included in the official MAP 2022 PR activities.

If the press release includes significantly more information than the MAP 2022 Communications recommendations, the abstract’s placement in the MAP 2022 is subject to change and can be withdrawn from the official MAP 2022 PR activities.

Copyright

The MAP 2022 organisers hold copyright of all abstracts accepted for MAP 2022 and therefore abstracts cannot be made public prior to official publication.

MAP 2022 copyright is lifted only if the abstract is not accepted for inclusion in the official MAP 2022 programme and/or publication in the MAP 2022 Abstract Book.

The submission of abstracts accepted for MAP 2022 to subsequent conferences, organised either by ESMO or third-parties, requires the permission of the MAP 2022 organisers as copyright holders. Requests must be addressed to programme@esmo.org

Commercial data mining of MAP 2022 published abstracts requires the permission of the MAP 2022 organisers and approval must be sought before inception of the project. Queries should be addressed to programme@esmo.org.
