

PATIENT CONSENT FORM

For a patient's consent to publication of information about them in ESMO publications and products.

"Image of the month" articles include one striking and clinically important image with a multiple choice question (Image Quiz) and a brief description of the case history. Published images, image quiz and case description are available free online and will be used for educational purposes only.

I give my consent for all or any part of the material referenced above to appear in the ESMO website and any derivative work or product relating to ESMO in any form or medium.

I understand that:

- My name will not be published with the material and ESMO will endeavour to maintain my anonymity. I understand, however, that complete anonymity cannot be guaranteed and it is possible that someone may identify me from the image and/or accompanying text.
- The use of material relating to me may include, without limitation, publication in printed and electronic ESMO publications, at websites, in sublicensed or reprinted editions (including foreign language editions) and in other derivative works or products
- The image will be published and freely accessible in the ESMO website
- Nothing contained in the article will be used for commercial purposes
